ENGLAND GETS SET FOR OLD WAR CONTRACTS, ROGERS

(Special To The News)
BEVERLY HILLS, Cal., July 16.—I see where England has recognized the government of Russia. That means that war is practically assured with Russia and China, and they are getting all set for the old war contracts. They are learning something from us in the last one, and watch us start recognizing too. You know, there is nothing that makes a disreputable nation look respectable as quick as to have it give you a fat war contract.

All our highly civilized nations are great humanitarians, but if two countries are going to kill each other off, neutrals, at least, would like the privilege of furnishing the ammunition. When the judgment day comes, civilization will have an alibi. "I never took a human life; I only sold the fellow the gun to take it with."

Wednesday evening a Scout camp is the big night of the year. At this time the European tour scouts are going to present their pageant which is an Indian affair with full costume. Go out and see it.

Lawrence county has one of the largest single parties going to the Boy Scout jamboree. A report in a New York paper shows that we have even a larger number of Scouts than that city has going. Would be a nice thing to have a sort of olive farewell for the boys before they leave.

East Siders are leading the branch library field in the city at the present time. Their book circulation during each month completely eclipses that of any other branch and is growing each week.

With the work started of tearing out the Rosena dam it becomes the city authorities to launch a vigilance campaign to prevent any rubbish or garbage being thrown into the creek bed in the downtown section. Drastic measures should be taken at the outset to prevent the bed of the creek being littered with debris.

Farmers now in the midst of cutting their wheat crop, report that the yield this year is good.

Pa News noted a car in the city last night that not only had a license plate for the state of Virginia, but also for the city of Winchester in that state. The driver said that it was necessary to carry both a city and state license, and that both of them had to be purchased yearly. This is a new line of taxation, Pa News believes. China And Russia In Warlike Moves Reports Indicate

RUMOR CLASH HAS OCCURRED

Official Circles Have No
Confirmation Of Re-

(BULLETIN)

LONDON, July 16.—Warlike preparations by both China and Soviet Russia were reported from the Far East this afternoon.

It is estimated that about 60,000 Chinese soldiers are being massed upon the border of Soviet Russia, according to advices from evening newspapers from Peiping, Shanghai and Tokio.

Soviet troops are reported to be throwing up fortifications and digging trenches on their side of the Manchurian frontier.

Unconfirmed press advices said that the Soviet forces near Manchuria were "digging in". About 10,000 Chinese troops are massed on the Manchurian side of the line, opposite the Red soldiers.

(Manchuria, or Manchuria, lies on the Chinese eastern railway, 500 miles northwest of Harbin. It is known as the gateway to Siberia.)

Rumor First Clash
PEIPING, (Peking), July 16.—The first clash between Soviet troops and Chinese forces in the conflict over seizure of the Chinese Eastern railway was reported today from Harbin.

An unconfirmed rumor stated that Red troops crossed the Black river into Chinese territory, sinking Chinese vessels by heavy fire near Blagoveshchensk.

The reports gave no indication of loss of life.

Official circles here had no confirmation of the rumor and in view of the prevailing impression in authoritative quarters that actual armed conflict is most unlikely in spite of the seeming gravity of the situation, the report must be accepted with reserve.

Blagoveshchensk is in Siberia, about 10 miles northeast of the Manchurian frontier.

The youthful Communists wearing gas masks and carrying rifles paraded back and forth before the Chinese legation. Then they tore off their masks and shouted greetings to the Chinese Communist party and demands that the "Chinese Proletariat overthrow the Militaristic leaders."

Physicians were attempting to relieve bruises about the head which produced a condition of coma, they said. King George Passes Favorable Night

By HARRY R. FLORY

LONDON, July 16.—King George passed a favorable night, and his condition is satisfactory following an operation undergone yesterday to expedite healing of the abscess in his chest wound, according to an official bulletin issued by his physicians today.

The bulletin was posted in front of the palace soon after 10:30 it read: "His Majesty the king has passed a good night. Both general and local conditions are satisfactory."

The bulletin was signed by Sir Stanley Hewitt, Sir Hugh Rigby, Professor Wilfred Trotter and Lord Dawson of Penn.

The king's doctors visited the palace for an hour this morning. The Prince of Wales was present at the same time.

Reference in the bulletin to "local condition" had to do with the chest incision, which involved removal of portions of two of the king's ribs.

The king, it is understood, will be forced to remain in bed for several days at least, and his recent activity may be cut short for a considerable period in order to permit the abscess, for which the operation was performed, to drain thoroughly.

State Superior Court Decision Is In Favor Of Former Treasurer

Decision Outcome Of Surcharge By Auditors
Made In 1922

In a decision handed down by the superior court of Pennsylvania, which has been received by Prothonotary Ralph M. Campbell, the judgment of the Lawrence county court has been affirmed in the case of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania for the use of C. Lee Horner vs. John M. Houk, R. F. Houk and Conrad Houk. The result of the decision will be the forcing of some 18 constables and tax collectors in the county to return to ex-County Treasurer C. Lee Horner money paid to them for the collection of delinquent taxes.

The case arose out of a surcharge made against Mr. Horner for the collections of 1922. Like many county treasurers before him he had been paying delinquent collectors the five per cent allowed by law, and an additional five per cent. This custom had been followed so long by county treasurers that it was an accepted practice. In the audit of 1922 accounts the county auditors surcharged him with the additional five per cent, the total amounting to about $4400. This amount Mr. Horner had to pay into the county.

He then asked the collectors to return to him the five per cent additional, and when this was not done, suits were filed. The constables and collectors agreed that one suit should be made a test case, upon which they would rest all of the cases. The Houk case was chosen, tried before the local court and judgment granted for Horner.

In an opinion written by Judge Linn of the superior court, this judgment is affirmed, the total of this case amounting to $1875.50 judgment will (Continued On Page Two)

Controversy over removal of the old Rosena furnace dam, was settled rather abruptly yesterday, when city officials secured the services of a blaster from the quarries of the Lehigh Portland Cement Co., and started work on blowing out the breast of the dam.

Two charges were put off late Monday afternoon, which tore a great hole in the top of the dam. The hole was widened and deepened by several additional charges this morning, the blasting forming the top of the dam being ripped off for a distance of about 20 feet and the huge logs forming the supports beneath being shattered to pieces.

Water Lowered
With each successive charge the amount of water running over the top of the dam, was materially lessened. (Continued On Page Two)

Foreign Trade Is Increasing, Figures Reveal

Records For First Six Months Of Year Show Big Increase

BELIEVED RECORD FOR NORMAL YEAR

By ROBERT S. THORNBURGH
International News Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, July 16.—Six months figures of American foreign trade issued by the Department of Commerce led officials today to predict that sales and purchases abroad would amount to possibly $10,000,000,000, a record for normal years.

From the record piled up in the first half of the year exports were expected to exceed $5,500,000,000 and imports $4,400,000,000. Exports for the year probably will exceed those of 1928 by more than $400,000,000 while imports will be $300,000,000 greater, judging from figures already compiled.

Uncertainty Exists

Some uncertainty existed, however, because of the possibility of higher tariff rates. This would operate in two years for a possible higher tariff rates. This would operate in two years for a possible higher tariff rates. This would operate in two years for a possible higher tariff rates.

Few Declines Shown

Analysis of the trade of the first half-year was expected to show that a big gain in trade was accounted for principally in manufactured commodities. Some declines may have been shown in the raw material group.

Imports showed general gains, it was believed, since American manufacturers had a big requirement for many varieties of raw materials produced abroad.

As to future gold movements officials were reticent to speculate, because of the uncertainty of the money market. A hint of a situation of high rates would act to maintain a magnet for foreign gold in this market, while an easing of rate might bring about a resumption of heavy foreign borrowing and some outward movement. In the first half year the country gained $174,457,000 in gold, compared to a loss in the same period last year of $372,542,000.

PA NEW OBSERVES

Heved, but the driver said that it took the place of several other kinds of tax we have in Pennsylvania. Would be a good way of advertising the city, at any rate.

What are you doing to help keep New Castle streets clean?

The new sun back dresses do not fail to cause stares and comment when some young lady passes by invested in such. Pa New has seen but several on the streets and at every turn the wearers are subjects of much curiosity.

Seems to Pa News that the new ankle fad is turning out a flop here. A few of the younger kids are going without stockings and some of the extreme jazz age older ones, but outside of that, full length stockings seem to be reigning supreme.

One could easily have believed that someone had drowned in the Neshannock creek if they had glanced at the crowd assembled at the Rosena dam, where first attempts to remove it with dynamite were made Monday afternoon. Several did think so and asked of others to make sure.

Comment buzzed when news spread that Rosena dam was being dynamited yesterday. It was not until late in the day that the first charge was set off. Some favored the removal and others were just as loud in proclaiming the mistake that the city was making by doing so.

Workmen found it difficult to blast the inter-twined log and dirt that comprised the Rosena dam. The old dam had been improved at different times but all of the repair jobs were done some years ago.

From the travelling that Pa New has done on East Washington street, there seems to be a lot of logic in the request of an East Side citizen for traffic lights at Butler avenue and East Washington street, and at Ray and East Washington streets. Pa News would suggest that serious attention be given the request.

Pa News doesn't know whether it is a result of his suggestion or not, but he learns that the Scouts are going to carry a message from the

and with the last blast there was only a small space a few feet wide where the water leaked over. The water was lowered the greater part of a foot in the stream above the dam.

The work of blasting out the dam was started at 4:30 yesterday afternoon, under the direction of Foreman Fred Keneshan of the Lehigh Company. A huge crowd quickly congregated, which was difficult to handle. After two blasts had been set off it was decided to abandon the work until early this morning.

Three additional charges were set off, starting at 7:30 this morning, which gradually widened the gap in the top of the dam and tore the planking loose beneath. The work was discontinued about nine o'clock, when the Lehigh men found it necessary to return to their own duties.

To Remove Planks
City Engineer F. E. Miller stated this morning that no more blasting is contemplated for several days at least. City employees will start the task of removing the loose planks torn up by the blasts, hauling them from the bed of the stream with a cable. It is expected that this will lower the water more as part of the planks from the top of the dam were just torn loose and are sticking up from the bed of the stream, forming a barrier to the flow of water through the gap torn open by the blasting.

After the debris has been cleared away the results will be viewed and further action determined.

The work of carrying out the blasting was fraught with considerable danger. It was difficult to keep the curious back, and large pieces of the planking were hurled among the crowd which lined the creek bank. Pieces were also hurled through the roofs of adjoining buildings. One piece fell as far away as the corner of Jefferson and Lawrence streets. One of the blasts this morning hurled a huge piece of plank almost to the railroad tracks near the Johnson Bronze plant.

The cost of removing the dam will be less to the city than had been estimated by many. The work of the blasting experts from the Lehigh Company was contributed by officials of the company, while city employees will haul the planks and debris from the stream. Thus the expense will be but the cost of the explosive used and the time of the men.

ENGINEER DIES IN RAILROAD CRASH

when the cars left the tracks, but none was reported to have suffered injuries. The transfer was affected in a short time, to the Manhattan Limited.

Officials of the company and a Red Cross contingent hurried here from Pittsburgh as soon as the report of the accident was relayed to the Pennsylvania offices in that city. The officials made a preliminary investigation, when the special train arrived. The freight and passenger were running on tracks No. 1 and No. 2. The freight car that buckled was near the end of the train. The engine struck it and as it careened Evans was hurled from the cab.

J. W. Simpson was Conductor and J. C. Houston brakeman on the wrecked train. The Pittsburgher left Pittsburgh at 11 p. m.

It had not been determined early today what caused the freight car to buckle.

On investigation, Mr. Lambright was sitting upright in his auto but was unconscious. He was removed to his home where he passed away about an hour later, having never regained consciousness. It is believed that his death was the result of a stroke.

The deceased was one of the best known men of the community, having lived in New Galilee for many years. He was a member of the Reformed Presbyterian church.

Besides his widow, Margaret Elizabeth Lambright, he leaves one son Earl of New Galilee and two daughters, Mrs. J. E. Marshall of New Galilee and Mrs. H. E. Schroeder of Enon Valley.

Sharon Clothing Store Damaged By Big Fire Today

Estimate Several Thousand Dollars Damage To Sharon Clothing Firm

(International News Service)
SHARON, Pa., July 16.—Fire which swept through the Goldstone Clothing Store here today brought every available bit of apparatus into play in an effort to save adjoining structures. Three of the largest commercial houses in the town were endangered by the flames and sparks which were carried by the wind.

Efforts of the fire fighters were successful in stemming the blaze after it had damaged the clothing store to the extent of several thousand dollars.

Officials of the company were unable to tell how the blaze started, nor to accurately estimate the damage until a check of the stock had been made.

Azores

(International News Service)
HORTA, Azores, July 16.—The body of the Polish flier Major Ludwig Idzikowski, who was killed in the crash of the trans-Atlantic plane Marshal Pilsudski on Saturday night, and which was exhumed after being buried on Graciosa Island, arrived here today aboard the Polish Training Ship Iskra.

Upon the same ship is Major Kasimir Kubala, flying companion of Idzikowski, who was badly injured in the disaster. He was still so weak he could not converse with any one.

Idzikowski's body rested in a coffin on the deck of the Iskra with sailors mounting guard. The coffin was covered with Polish, Portuguese and French flags.

Officers of the Iskra said that Kubala's face was badly mutilated and that he was almost blind. He was suffering from severe cuts. Previous to the forced landing on Graciosa the backfiring fumes of the motor overcame Kubala, who remembers nothing of what happened before the plane crashed upon the ground. He thought, however, that the land he saw before he lost consciousness was Fayal.

It is not known if Kubala will be taken from the ship to a Horta hospital or continue on board under treatment by the ship's surgeon.

THE FARM BOARD MEETS

MONDAY marked the first meeting of the federal farm board. It was an event fraught with deep significance not only for the industry with which it is directly concerned but for the country at large.

The powers of this board have been described as probably the most extensive ever granted to a federal administrative body. It will have not only the spending but the loaning of half a billion dollars to promote "the effective merchandising of agricultural commodities."

Original limitations on the board's freedom of action, such as the allotting of specific sums to be allocated to producers of different commodities, were stricken out of the bill. The text of the agricultural marketing act is full of "mays" rather than "musts."

The granting of such broad authority to the board placed a peculiar responsibility upon the president in the selection of its membership. The appointee had the backing of a long and impressive list of indorsees. These included co-operative associations of producers and individuals who have been active in dealing with the farmer's problems. As has been said, such indorsements have been doubly valuable, affording a guide to the president in making his appointments and constituting, in effect, promises of co-operation in working out this new and most extensive plan of farm relief.

No task undertaken by the government has ever more plainly depended for its success on the quality of its administrators. It has been called "the biggest and most complex marketing job that has ever been attempted." It demands the highest standard of "business statesmanship." Fortunately, there is every indication that the members of the farm board fully measure up to the size of their task, and some effective results are anticipated.

A RAILROAD COEVAL WITH A LIFE

THE Washington and Waynesboro Railroad has suspended operations after an existence since 1877. About the time it was projected Leasure Shull was born. Later he became identified with the road and for a quarter century was a conductor.

When time came for the final journey he was on hand to collect the fares, but grief overwhelmed him at the thought and he declined to make the last run. The brakeman took his place. He watched the little train from the station platform and as the last coach disappeared around a curve he collapsed, dying later.

Seaside folk have a superstition that births occur at flood and deaths at ebb because life comes and goes with the tides. But few can tell a tale rivaling that of the man who came into the world with the advent of a railroad and went out with its departure.—Philadelphia Inquirer.

A REFORMER WHO DISCARDED HIS SHIRT

AT LEAST one of our advocates of the male dress reform has the courage of his convictions. He is Dr. Thomas Darlington, former health commissioner of New York, who appeared at a Rotary Club luncheon last week in his union suit, a pair of cotton trousers surmounted by suspenders and a light cotton coat, which he removed upon entering the dining room.

Eventually Dr. Darlington expects to see men wear their pajamas to business during hot weather; but he avers that will not happen until the public has become reconciled to the exposure of male necks. He is convinced, however, that men will soon be following the example of women, "who, formerly clothed with the wool of our sheep, now manage to do very well with the product of one silkworm."

We have been wondering recently whether the vogue for vividly colored underwear for men might not be regarded as the foreshadowing of a great change. Those who seek an example may be impressed by the consequences of a corresponding development of color in feminine "undies." The first timid step, if memory may be trusted, was the "peek-a-boo" Mouse. Will history repeat itself?

The hobby-horse most people ride drinks gasoline.

The most expensive thing about a home is carelessness.

Animal instinct isn't so impressive when you know the men some dogs associate with.

No one can put a hat on your head and make it feel as if you put it there yourself.

It is only natural that father should worry about son. Father was a son himself, once.

A Western coach says "athletics are work, not play." Yes, especially football.

A Detroit woman bandit used tear gas in a bank holdup the other day. Same old feminine formula: tears for money.

Another way to become cheerful is to visit the country and observe the acres and acres of grass you don't have to mow.

One-third of the accidents in building construction are due to falling objects, says a statistician. The rule applies 100 per cent, however, in the stock exchange.

It is estimated that 50 per cent of church members contribute nothing to its support. It is also estimated that they get out of it just about what they put into it.

The Contractor Racket.

Monday news events can be told briefly, all except the Cassidy brothers' story. It deserves more space. "Red" and Peter Cassidy are or were, have fighters from New York's water front. Visits to other speakases and made them thirsty, and exacting, as regards service, before they entered the Hotsy Totsy club on Broadway.

Time 3:30 a. m., the Hotsy Totsy ballroom was closed, in obedience to law, the bar was busy, the bartender, tired, rather slow.

The Cassidy's relying on their fists, announced a clean-up. Gentlemen, with one lady, at the far end of the bar objecting to the noise, added to it with automatic pistols. One Cassidy fell down the stairs, with a bullet groove on the top of his head.

His brother, "Red," was hurried to the hospital, shot as follows: Three times in the head, once in the abdomen, once in the groin.

At the hospital "Red," knowing his time was short, refused to waste it, answering police questions. The lady was arrested, but chivalry means something, and even in a speakeasy, a lady is still a lady. The police would not give her name.

There are in New York City, police say, at least 22,000 speakeasies, more or less like the Hotsy Totsy, on the second floor of 1721 Broadway.

The police will close that one, and before it is officially closed it will have engaged quarters elsewhere, possibly on the same block, for customer convenience. It may change its name from Hotsy Totsy to Totsy Hotsy.

Can you tell Uncle Sam and prohibition enforcement men how to handle that situation, in the jungles of great cities?

The city of Colby, Kans., again votes not to tax anybody or any property, real or personal, in the city.

Colby owns its power, light and water plant. Profits, which go to the city, make taxes unnecessary. In fact, because of surplus profits, the water rate is reduced 25 cents this year.

You see what such Bolshevism would soon lead to. That publicly owned light and water plant means that several fine American families have no private rights, and members of these families may have to go to work instead of going to Europe. Above all, it does away with tax-paying, thus sapping the foundations of our national patriotism.

The editor of the Skibbereen Eagle wrote "we have our eye on the czar of Russia."

He should now fix that eye on the Bolshevik government. While other nations talk peace, snubbing Russia systematically and stupidly, Russia, reserving the right to do as she pleases, says to China, in not too diplomatic language, "You do as we say, or we shall use other means."

Much meaning in those words "other means." Russia is still, as in Napoleon's day, "a feather bed, in which those that attack smother themselves."

Russia can put in the field fifteen million fighting men. Russia is now free of a war-mindless czar, led by a superstitious woman, led in turn by the vicious priest, Rasputin, and Russia is free of grand dukes that stole money intended for army purposes. China, if wise, will talk things over.

The gunster racket based on commercial principles travels from Chicago to New York.

Gentlemen of the racket "declare themselves" in, for instance, the electrical industry.

They say to contractors, "we are going to protect you and you are going to pay us 2 per cent of your gross receipts, with a salary for our head racketeer."

Some contractors could not see the point and buildings under construction, dealing with them, were burned.

Contractors doing work on a close basis, leaving no margin for the racketeer, were warned, "it will be healthy for you to break that contract."

They testify that they took the hint.

It is a complicated business world.

SEVEN SOUL REDUCING EXERCISES

Fill your mind with suspicions of other people.

Allow self-pity to dominate your thinking.

Think of all your friends in terms of what you can get out of them. Depend upon your body for all the happiness you get out of life.

Measure every experience in terms of money.

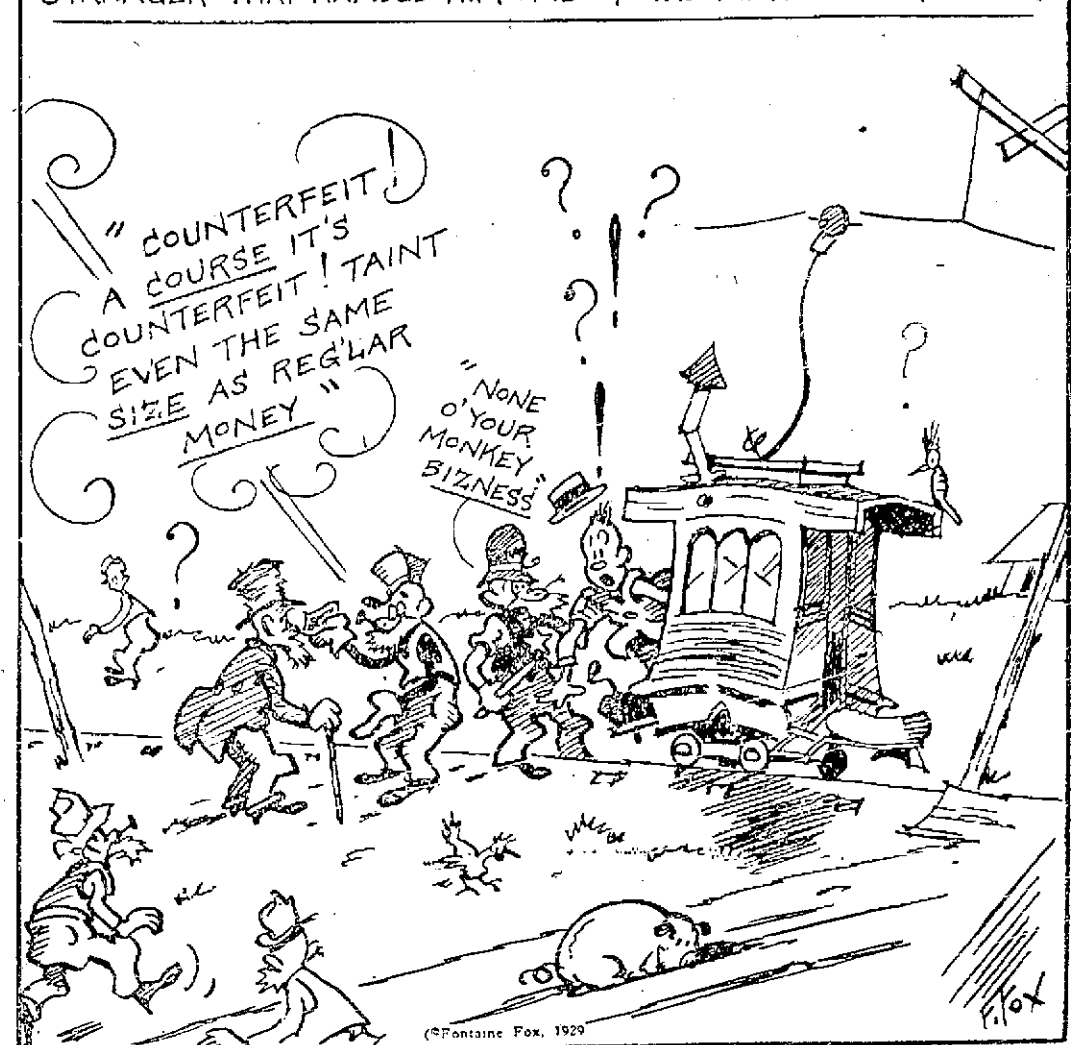

Cultivate the habit of ridiculing everything sacred.

Live every day as if there would never be any tomorrow.

Hints and Dints

Sun sets tonight 7:28. Sun rises tomorrow 4:44.

Two men fell from the rear seat of an airplane in Spain and it was not discovered until the plane had gone many miles. It will hardly be of any use to go back and look for folks who fall from airplanes.

Staying up in the air a week or so in an airplane is looked upon as some stunt, but still there are folks up in the air about all their lives and very few pay any attention to them.

Nothing will burn in stopping to get a chew of gum I forgot to turn off the shower bath.

A stranger came to me to ask about a local citizen. The stranger wished to buy a piece of property and was afraid of being cheated. He had to depend on the local man's word. And he wished to know whether the man's word is good. What could I say? But he never did. That was all the stranger wished to know. And it goes to show that chickens come home to roost. You make a dollar by cheating one man and lose two dollars because your reputation is damaged.

Night life lovers have no place down on the farm for there they start working at four o'clock in the morning and never stop.

"Bill's a mighty good listener." "He ought to be—he's got a radio and a wife."

A poultry man out in Nebraska has invented a hen with no wings. This hen is supposed to lay more eggs on account of having no wings. This may be all right as far as the egg-laying goes, but what are chicken suppers going to do without wings—and no one has yet invented a hen without more than one neck.

There has been a lot of talk about movie actresses and actors striking in Hollywood for shorter hours and more pay. Those two things always go together and don't always be received courteously by those who are expected to comply with these things.

If those who look at movies ever get on a strike for sensible things, a lot of movie managers will be driving ash cars.

Some of them don't know when it rains now.

It must be painful to feel so righteous that you can't stoop to speculation in stocks except in secret.

It is against the law in Buenos Aires to appear in the street minus a coat and the city ordinance is responsible for a new and rather startling fashion for men in the Argentine. When the temperature last "winter" began to average 98 degrees in the shade a young man appeared in the street wearing the coat of his pajamas. Since this was strictly within the law and far more comfortable than even a linen suit other men quickly fell in line. Almost overnight a fashion was born. Pajama manufacturers quick to seize the opportunity soon presented numerous new interpretations of this new mode. It immediately became sartorially correct to appear on the street in the new style and after a time whole suits of pajamas replaced the heavier Palm Beach suits of former "winters." Pajamas being cooler, cheaper and more easily cleaned, rapidly became the favorite garb among the Beau Brummels of the city. The brilliant hues and wild patterns seen in the streets seem to lend weight to the theory that men in their secret hearts long to transcend the drab sobriety of their ordinary attire.—The Living Age.

A Youngstown lady in her will provided one million dollars for the establishment of a home for friendless girls in that city and also gave half a million dollars to the Youngstown hospital. "That surely will help a lot and makes a nice mark for other philanthropists to aim at not only in Youngstown but in other cities.

Postman: "I hear your wife was driving the car and had an accident. Much damage done?"

Grocer: "No; just a little paint off both."

During the past forty months there has been one murder each and every month that has been unsolved in Pittsburgh. This is our idea of something to cause real anxiety and worry for the welfare of humanity. We still believe murder the worst crime.

"Has Jack always been a woman-hater?" "No, only since his marriage."

If there were no difference of opinion there would be no alibis. Sometimes we think we could get along without the differences of opinion than with the birds who differ.

Hearing that the meat-cutter was leaving, the pretty little cashier buttoned the boss to put in a word for her current boy friend.

"How much experience has he had, Mildred?" the grocer inquired.

"Oh! Mildred admitted, 'Teddy' never out any meat, but—"

"Then what makes you think he could hold down the job?"

"Well," was the reply, "he's always been awfully fond of animals."

Don't blame the female who giggles. Nature made her feel as others do after the second cocktail.

Some one said he would rather be right than president, but with the U. S. senators that doesn't go.

The seas were rolling high as the steward approached the wealthy retired grocer at the rail.

"Anything I can get you, sir?" he asked.

"Yes," said the other wearily. "I'd like a small island."

Yes-men aren't really loyal echoes of the boss. Most of them are yes-men. Un-like-to-sock-you-on-the-jaw-but.

Every day we see a flock of bimber crowded into the front seat of an auto. This in spite of the law against it.

Hoover Child-Welfare Project Viewed With Favor By Public

Survey To Be Financed By Private Donation Will Be First Comprehensive Study of American Child Life In Generation

Sympathetic interest everywhere is reflected in newspaper comment on President Hoover's project, financed by a half-million-dollar gift from private sources, to survey the needs of the children of the country and submit the findings to an unofficial conference on child welfare.

"Such a movement might well take on significance comparable to that of the commission recently created to study the problems of law enforcement," says the BROOKLYN DAILY EAGLE, which, while it states that "America has done more for children than any other country," still feels that "with all this care there remain many grave problems touching upon childhood in this prosperous country."

A survey of American child life "is in order," thinks the ALBANY EVENING NEWS, since "there has been no conference on this subject since that called by President Roosevelt a score of years ago," and this paper believes that "wherever the donors of this fund may be they have given money in a great cause."

The NASHVILLE BANNER finds both the "manner and content of President Hoover's most recent call for a conference alike interesting. In the first place," explains the Banner, "the new movement to assemble a representative group of leaders who are concerned in promoting child welfare with special reference to health, but not until from nine months to a year shall have been spent in intensive study of the situation as it exists, and all data likely to be of practical use shall have been collected. Both manner and method are altogether characteristic."

Calling attention to the fact that "President and Mrs. Hoover were well known as child welfare workers long before Mr. Hoover was much spoken of as a presidential candidate," the ASHEVILLE TIMES thinks "it is natural, therefore, that Mr. Hoover should organize a country-wide movement for reinforcement of the equality of opportunity for every child, and considers the project a commendable one. It is the work of an engineer who wishes to become a social engineer in the leadership of the American people during his years in the Presidency."

It is recalled by the SAN FRANCISCO CHRONICLE that "in Belgium relief work the work that first made Mr. Hoover a world figure, the children in the destitute areas become his special care," and under his administration of the relief agencies "child mortality was reduced to a low figure than had obtained in the pre-war period." Continuing, the Chronicle registers its belief that, "under the auspices of a President whose own experience and achievements in the field of child welfare qualify him as an expert, the conference should prove of great value to one of the highest of all public questions."

"Announcement that the extra-governmental factor which will direct the survey will be headed by two members of the Cabinet, Secretaries Wilson and Davis, is an apt illustration of the Hoover way of getting things done," says the PHILADELPHIA EVENING BULLETIN, which is confident that "measurable benefits cannot fail to follow a survey of present conditions."

Many papers, while approving the survey and conference, are careful to note that the latter will have no legal status. The conference "is not a governmental undertaking," says the HARTFORD DAILY COURANT, continuing: "The faith of the President in voluntary co-operation rather than governmental regulation in the field of industry is well known. The effort to extend such co-operation into the realm of social activities is one to which he properly lends his influence."

While conceding that "better provision for child welfare in the more backward sections is decidedly advisable," the GRAND RAPIDS PRESS declares it "need not and must not take the form of coercion of placing the care of children under any sort of federal bureaucracy," since, in the opinion of the Press, "the country has made quite obvious its objection to centralized dictation of what should be home and community matters."

So also the LANSING STATE JOURNAL, which argues: "The conference that will meet some time next year will have no power of legislation whatsoever. Following deliberations of those gathered, some recommendations for legislation may be offered, but the outstanding effect of the meeting will be that it will advertise ideas. The White House is again to be used in the leadership of ideas."

"Through care of the young, the future of the nation is assured."

A GOLFER'S RUINATION
One day I drove a golf ball straight Two hundred yards or more; A golfing feat, I now repeat, I'd never done before. Its memory still with me survives, And now I curse my common drives.

Just once by chance a mastic shot Of mine was straight and true, By chance or luck, near by it struck, I made the hole in two. But oh, I've grumbled much since then, Because that shot won't come again.

And once I shot a seventy-nine Before my hair turned gray, But ninety-one's the best I've done Since that unhappy day. And now I wait to all I see, "My game's not what it used to be," I wonder if they know he's a Democrat.

The World AND THE Mud Puddles

Nineteenth installment of a Diary kept by Lawrence A. Wilson, of San Diego, California, upon his visit to Russia, in 1928, published exclusively in The New Castle News.

VODKA AND VEGETARIANS

The government just couldn't seem to find any place to stop, once it had taken to the vodka soaked slits. Everything seemed greased for the slide. Moonshine continued to flourish, and began to circulate at 30 kopecks per pint, so that the government product, sold at one possible per bottle, was eaten almost entirely out of the market.

These facts we learned at the Health Bureau. For it is the Health Department which is now grappling with the whole problem. Dr. Alexander Sholomovich heads this Department. He has gathered a number of young physicians around him. They are splendid young fellows. They are treating alcoholism as a part of the problem known as "narcoticism."

Narcotic dispensaries, especially for the treatment of alcoholic cases, are being opened in all large centers. We visited four in Moscow today. Several volunteer doctors and nurses were giving part of their time to this work. Their method is to try to secure the full co-operation of the addicts themselves. But they recognize the fact that long periods of educational work in fundamental. Still some remarkable cures have been effected. Of alcoholics treated so far, 40 per cent shows complete recovery, while another 30 per cent have shown improvement, with occasional lapses.

This afternoon we visited the October Candy factory. Factories have been given pictures of names, reminiscent of the struggles of the Revolution. There is the "Freed Labor Textile Mill," "The Red Torch Machine Works," "The Bolshevikhat Confectionary Factory" and many other embattled names, calculated to stir the loyalty and fighting blood of the proletariat. For the workers are made to feel that they are fighting at their daily toil the battles of the revolution.

We are interested in the many agencies for welfare in these factories. There is the creche in which the young Mother leaves her baby while she performs the daily toil which is the lot of all women equally well men. There are the kindergarten, and the school, and playground, for children up to the age of fifteen. In nearly every factory there is a reading room and an amusement center. We inquired why Russian workmen seemed to like such paternalistic provisions for their welfare, when in America the workers are insisting that such things are only a sop, and are demanding that all these tasks be abolished and the amount spent on them be added to their wages so that they themselves can provide for their own recreation. The Bolshevik Supremacists couldn't get the answer of such questions. And they refuse, any how, to answer any questions, based on our experience with American workmen. I suppose it is

Girl's Kindness To Newsdealer Brings Fortune

Wills His Fortune To Girl Who Aided Him During His Friendless Days

DENVER, July 16.—Like the conscientious lad who picked up a stone from the highway because it might cause an accident and underneath it found a bag of gold, Ruth Brown, 9 years old, was repaid many fold for her kindness to an old Danish gentleman whom she found living alone in a rooming house.

Hans Peter Jacobson, 71, died here recently and on his deathbed he willed his entire fortune $42,000—to Ruth, because she had befriended him and had given him happiness during the last few years of his life.

Called Him Pete.
"Pete" as the girl called him, sold papers on a downtown street. His business prospered for he always had a glad word for his customers and was never ragged or uncouth as many newsies are who tread the streets.

One evening several years ago as "Pete" made his lonely way up the stairway to his room he met Ruth.
"Do you live alone?" she asked.
"Yes" was the reply.

"We'd like to have you come to our house to dinner sometime, can't you come tonight?"
"But your folks would not like you to bring a stranger into your home," he protested.

But Ruth took the old man into her home and introduced him to her parents. This was the beginning of a series of regular visits to the Brown home that did not end until "Pete"
was taken to the hospital.

Writes His Will.
"Pete" did not tell Ruth of his sickness for he thought he'd be all right in a few days "and why bother her."

But after a few days he called Ruth's father to his bedside called a nurse as a witness and penned his will. The will directed the public administrator to a safety deposit box where was found receipts for $4,000 which "Pete" had saved for a rainy day during the 46 years since he came to America by selling papers on a downtown street corner.

"I'm going to use the money for a college education," said Ruth, "then if I make anything of myself it will be because of old Pete. We miss him a lot. It is funny we did not meet sooner."

Pretty Waitress Kidnapped From Pittsburgh Home

Miss Anna Astman, 17, Is Being

(International News Service)
PITTSBURGH, July 16.—Anna
Astman, pretty 17-year-old blonde waitress, today became the object of a police search in three states after her guardian charged the girl was abducted yesterday by three young men.

Mrs. Ida Talmadge, social worker who had been guardian of the girl for four months, said the men were leading Anna toward an automobile as she, Mrs. Talmadge, was returning home.

"I cried out, 'wait a minute!' when I saw them leading her. She seemed to have been drugged," Mrs. Talmadge told police. "But they dragged her into the automobile and drove off before I could question them. As they left one young man said they were taking her to Steubenville, O."

The Bureau of Missing Persons was notified and began an immediate check of the license number of the automobile.

Police of West Virginia, Pennsylvania and Ohio were notified immediately and equipped with a description of the girl, the car and the men.

Miss Astman was described as an attractive blonde, height five feet six inches, weight, 135 pounds.

true that American working conditions just do not apply at all as a form for considering these situations in Russia.

We ate at a vegetarian restaurant this evening. It was founded by the Tolstoians in order to discourage the eating of flesh of slaughtered animals.
The followers of Tolstoy will neither eat, wear nor use in any way, anything which has been a part of an animal, if it meant the killing of the animal. This vegetarian restaurant leaped into popularity at once. This was remarkable, considering that Russians have always been great meat eaters. At first the Soviet papers ridiculed vegetarianism. Then they began warning the workers that this was a subtle device, not merely to fill the stomach with vegetarian dishes
but to fill the mind with Tolstoian ideas. But such measures only increased the flow of patrons. So now the government itself has established a large number of vegetarian eating places. The officials have made the discovery that by cutting down the consumption of meat they have made it possible to export an increased amount of beef. Russia is sorely in need of all the revenue it can get from exports, and beef is one of the few things it has to export. So the Soviet Government has become a convinced exponent of vegetarianism.

The government is also turning its efficient propaganda methods in the direction of the community restaurants, and is trying to induce people to eat in them instead of preparing meals at home. On all the paper napkins served in these restaurants are printed the words, "Community Eating." Placards on the walls advising the advantages of eating in public.
This is part of the program for the breaking up of the old type of family life.

It all depends on the point of view. When the society page says everybody has left town, nobody can notice the difference.

Men May Outdo Women In Simplifying Of Dress

If Chicago Health Commissioner Has Way, One Need Just Jump Into Artistic Cover-alls And Pull
Couple Of "Zippers"

CHICAGO, July 16.—Women are about to lose their monopoly in simplified dress. The discovery that a man's ordinary outfit weighs almost eight times as much as that of a woman and that his shoes alone outweigh her entire outfit, including watch and beads, has led to serious thinking.

As a result, Arnold H. Kegel, health commissioner, recommends a one-piece garment for men. There are to be no buttons, but zippers will close the necessary openings. Just pull at the zipper and the occupant is dressed.

The garment is a one-piece affair with a two-piece effect. The trousers are baggy and bell-bottomed to permit free circulation of air. The shirt or blouse is of silk or madras, thus giving the two-piece effect. The blouse opens at the throat with no collar and no necktie necessary. Sock-lets which rise high enough to meet the trousers will be worn without supporters and lightweight oxfords complete the ensemble. All the wearer has to do is jump into his
"coveralls," pull a couple of zippers and he is dressed.

NEW FEDERAL FARM BOARD IS STARTING TASK

Secretary of Agriculture Hyde, who is an ex-officio member of the board.

Shy One Member
Still shy a member to represent wheat growing interests, seven members of the board named and Secretary Hyde went into session again in a luxurious suite in the Mayflower Hotel here to thrash out the details of organization and to discuss the new farm act in detail.

With the new law subjected to different interpretations by farm organizations it is expected that the board will seek the advice of Attorney General Mitchell before determining upon its policies.

Chairman Legge, though asserting that it is too early to predict the nature of the board's action, made it plain that he hopes to get the board's machinery in operation quickly enough to aid in the orderly marketing of this year's crops if the farm cooperatives are ready to accept help.

To Bring Pressure
Pressure is expected to be exerted upon the board to take emergency action to stabilize wheat prices. Legge declined to discuss probable action in this year. Secretary Hyde, however, is taking an optimistic view of the wheat situation. He pointed out the considerable gain in price from the low ebb of the wheat market two months ago, and the fact that the spread between Chicago and Liverpool prices has been narrowed.

The railroads, the administration and the shipping board all are now co-operating to facilitate the movement of stored wheat to foreign markets.

Chairman Legge said that the board is on the job to do the work Congress carved out for it and to get into action as quickly as possible. He frankly declared that he has no cure-all to offer for the farm problem. The board has already been bombarded with thousands of letters from all parts of the country offering active assistance to solve the farmers' problems without delay.

Long-Time Program
The emphasis which President
Hoover placed upon his statement that the nation is embarking upon a long-time program to build up agriculture was accepted as an indication that the board probably will avoid emergency action unless it is a part of the general program for the development of co-operative marketing.

Mr. Hoover was still wrestling with the problem of a "wheat member" of the board. Differences of opinion between two wheat groups—one favoring the development of marketing through farmer ownership of co-operative elevators and the other advocating the formation of giant wheat pools—have thus far prevented the President from naming the eighth member of the board.

Pressure is being brought upon the conflicting interests in the wheat market to reconcile their differences, but so far the appeal has not produced results.

Some men make fortunes, but not to enjoy them; for, blinded by avarice, they live to make fortunes.—Juvenal.

Fire Sweeps Two Big Factories In Philadelphia

PHILADELPHIA, July 16.—A fire swept two North Philadelphia factories early today causing a loss of more than $100,000. Two firemen were injured while fighting the flames.
The first blaze razed the Produce Storage house of C. P. Simonin's sons while the second blaze swept the second and third floors of the American Upholstery company plant.

Paul Dufford and Karl Walters of this city have arrived home after spending the past two weeks fishing at Buck Horn, Ont. Accompanying the local men were Clarence Walters and Floyd Wise of Butler and Joe Birch of Pittsburgh.

During the two weeks of fishing more than 200 fish were caught. The largest was a 15-pound muskallonge.
Both Dufford and Walters report a most enjoyable time. They met Alderman O. H. P. Green, Bob Mackey, Bill Bratz, "Hub" Hart, Paul Barry, Jr., and Mrs. A. C. McCoy and family and others of New Castle while there.

Featuring their trip was the evening spent with an Indian tribe at Lakeland, Ont. The local men with outside help formed a five-piece string orchestra and made possible entertainment which the Indians said was the best they had for many years.

Progress Made On Wilmington Road Repaving

Concrete Is Being Poured On Lower End Of Road By Contracting Firm

WILL FINISH PART
OF ROAD THIS WEEK

Work of pouring concrete on the New Wilmington road is being carried forward rapidly at the present time, and the stretch from St. Joseph's cemetery to the city line will probably be completed by the end of the week, if the present rate is kept up. Work of grading the upper section of the road near Walmo and putting in a culvert made it necessary to start the concrete work on the lower end of the stretch, employees started at St. Joseph's cemetery, the latter part of the week and are close to the intersection of the Poleski road at the present time. If good weather continues this week, they hope to finish to the city line.

The upper end of the road will then be rushed to completion and the concrete work started as soon as possible. A monologue is a conversation between a traffic cop and a motorist.—The Louisville Times.

Bo-Broadway

by JOSEPH VAN RAALTE

By Central Press.
NEW YORK, July 16.—Thirteen years ago this August John Golden, now a big time producer arrived on Broadway with his play "Turn of the Mind." Mr. Golden has been a strong force for a clean stage. "Nothing but clean plays is the Golden slogan and as a result, he has gone cheerfully and successfully on his way while competitors who dabble in dirt have for the most part disappeared. Winchell Smith who wrote most of the Golden successes has forsaken Mazda Lane for a life of ease. He is spending the fortune clean plays made for him dividing his time between his fine estate in Connecticut and a villa in Monte Carlo.

Which merely proves that all things come to an end if you follow the advice of the late Charles Frohman who can be a successful playwright and estates in Connecticut and Monte Carlo will follow.

Mr. Frohman's advice was "Be brilliant."

POSSESSION AND KNOWLEDGE
There is a vast difference between knowledge and possession. There is much difference between knowing something and being something. C. T. Henderson, southern educator, says: "We can not communicate what we do not know. It is well understood that one can not impart knowledge which one does not possess. It is less completely understood that neither can one communicate character or goodness or spirituality unless one has gained these great possessions for oneself."

The principle applies not only to personality and life in general but to salesmanship in particular. You may know about the supposed excellencies of a product but unless you actually possess the enthusiasm of belief in the product, unless you actually possess sincerity, you can not hope to be a great salesman.

STEERING
"I must go down to the sea again, to the lonely sea and sky, and all I ask is a tall ship, and a star to steer her by."

And so do we all steer our ships by the stars of other men. You who think yourself humble and obscure may not escape being the guide for someone, the pattern for a life, the star by which a ship is steered. It is an inescapable responsibility—one to make us thoughtful.

HOW YOU LOOK AT IT
"How's business?" asks the friend.

record. Once he skidded round the equator in 36 days, and recently smashed his own record by looping the loops in 23 days.

John Henry bought a motorboat recently and the first time he went out on it on Long Island Sound—just outside his own backyard—he got lost and had to hire a guide to pilot him back home.

KNOW ANY?
A visitor in a motion picture studio ran into Betty Compton who is doing a film with the peculiar title "The Great Gabbo."

"What does the title mean?" asked the visitor.
"Well," said Betty "a 'gabbo' is a person who takes a lot and says nothing."
"Oh I see," replied the visitor. "It's all about a press agent."

IMPOSSIBLE!
Things We'll Try to Forget But Won't Forgive: Ed Sullivan chronicler of Chicago's Gangland, and Don Clark, biographer of Arnold Rothstein, standing before a little sidewalk stall on 42nd street absorbing pineapple juice.

"Good—for the little I got," is the reply.
In the answer is revealed the seed of ultimate large success. An acorn may be the source of vision.

A STAKE IN THE WORLD
It is said that ten million people own stock in the large corporations of the country. Counting all corporations, doubtless the number is much greater. Think what that means to the United States and its continuing experiment of democracy. What has become of the old division—the House of Haves and the House of Want? The attitude of millions is changed, because they have a stake in their country. They are owners, operators, stockholders. They laugh at the soap-box pessimist to whom they once listened as for glad tidings.

GOING STRAIGHT
It was an old man speaking. He was not an educated man. He was just a plain, good citizen. He had seen much of life. He was a modest, quiet man. The talk concerned the break-down of a supposedly successful person in the community. The old man had just this to say: "There's nothing like going straight in the world."

Bible Conference Draws Interest

Excellent Addresses Are Made As Etna Springs Conference
Progresses

Interest in the Etna Springs Bible Conference continues to grow. The conference hall was two-thirds full at the evening session last night and over sixty were present at the afternoon session, and heard a splendid message by Rev. H. H. Van Cleave. At the evening session a spirited song service was led by Rev. Childs, a soprano solo was given by Miss Nana Jenkins.

Dr. Isenberg of Slippery Rock Normal College led in prayer. In the absence of Rev. B. E. Williams, who was scheduled to speak, an address was given by George M. Landis on the subject "Can a Man Think and be a Christian?" The speaker showed that while many of the great doctrines of the Christian faith transcend human reason none of them contradict or violate human reason. The doctrine of God, inspiration of the scriptures, sin, salvation by atonement and the future life were all examined and found to be perfectly reasonable.

Two messages will be given this evening. C. M. Landis will speak on "Can an Intelligent Person Believe in the Miracles?" Rev. B. E. Williams of Ellwood City will speak on "Is the Virgin Birth an Essential Doctrine of the Christian Faith?" The evening meeting begins at 7:00 o'clock Eastern Standard Time. On Wednesday Rev. Howard Albert Banks of Pittsburgh is scheduled to speak at two o'clock on the subject "Is it Possible to Live a Life of Continuous Victory?" At seven o'clock Rev. C. C. Mohney pastor of the Croton Methodist Church will give an address on "Atonement—Not Without Blood."

Hoover Reviews Citizens Troops

(International News Service)
BALTIMORE, Md., July 16.—Six hundred men from Eastern and Central Pennsylvania swept forward before President Hoover and General Henri Gouraud, their French wartime commander Monday, when the President for the first time reviewed a contingent of the Citizens' Military Training Camps, as part of the parade of the 42nd Rainbow Division Association.

The Port Howard contingent, consisting solely of men from the eastern half of Pennsylvania, won the distinction of representing the Third Corps Area in the parade because of the rapid progress they made during their first week in camp.

Then men were in charge of officers of the 35th Reserve Infantry, commanded by Lt. Col. Harry D. McClusky, of Kane, Pa.

Simple Home Treatment
Brings Amazing Results

Varicose Veins are veins which have become dilated and enlarged by undue pressure made upon them and are most frequently caused by tight garters, girdles, constipation, positions requiring long standing, childbirth, etc.

Anyone suffering with Varicose Veins should start and take immediate precaution because untreated veins have a tendency to grow worse and worse until finally they can only be relieved by an operation.

It's now an accepted fact that the best home treatment to banish Varicose Veins is Moore's Emu-Oil—a powerful penetrating and antiseptic oil which quickly stops the pain, wonderfully strengthens the legs and swiftly reduces most enlarged and swollen veins to normal.

Why let your legs beauty and attractiveness be ruined by ugly veins when a 2 ounce bottle of Emu-Oil at New Castle Drug Co., McKewen's Kait Kait Store, Portersville of New Castle, Inc., or any drugstore, swiftly reduces the worst and most long standing cases of Varicose Veins for 30 years and finally I feel I should say I can't praise it enough and I'm so glad I read about it in the Oregon Journal.

City-County League Meets On Monday

A Number Of Matters Of Importance Are Decided At That Time

A special meeting of the managers of the teams of the City-County League was held last night at Danceland, Alex Samuels, vice president of the organization, presided.

It was announced at the meeting that the Post Office ball team would likely come in as the sixth team. The league voted to give the Post Office franchise should they decide at once; otherwise it is probable that the league will complete the second half with but five teams.

It was also decided that but one umpire should be appointed to each game and that those appointed and working the game to which assigned will receive $2 a game.

The tentative schedule arranged for the present week with the assignments of umpires follows:

Wednesday, July 17:
Casade A. C. at West Pittsburgh; Howard Reed umpire. Danceland at Berea A. C. at West Evans umpire. Energy at Post Office, North Highland grounds; Hamilton Adams umpire.

Friday:
Bere A. C. at Energy; Ben McCann umpire.

Saturday:
Post Office at Casade A. C.; Reed umpire. West Pittsburgh at Danceland; William Owens umpire.

Governors Meet In Annual Conference, Crime Is Discussed

Twenty-First Annual Conference Of Nation's Governors Opens In Connecticut

Prohibition Is Only Contributing Factor To Increase In Crime Wave

By JAMES L. KILGALLAN
International News Service Staff Correspondent

GROTON, Conn., July 15.—Crime in the United States was the dominant theme discussed by governors from all parts of the nation attending the twenty-first conference of governors which opened a three day session at the Hotel Griswold here today.

The chief of crime in the country is the inclination on the part of many people to live beyond their means, Governor John Hamill, of Iowa, told the conference this morning at the conference was called to order. "They are consumed by a mad desire for pleasures and luxuries and are lacking in the fundamental industry and ability to acquire them. They want these luxuries at any cost."

Prohibition Big Factor
Prohibition is a contributing factor, but not the controlling cause of crime in the opinion of Governor Hamill. He said the American people should reach the cause of crime, not the symptom and treat that. He felt certain the commission of crime could be controlled and reduced by vigorous enforcement of all laws.

"I believe all laws should be strictly enforced, including the prohibition law," said Governor Hamill. "I do not believe stress should be laid on any particular law. If we make a law we should enforce it. The prohibition law can be enforced if we employ honest, courageous men who are selected for their ability to do the job and not because of political consideration."

Can Enforce Law.

"It is an indictment of the integrity of the American people to say the prohibition law cannot be enforced. I think the states should do all in their power to assist the federal government in enforcing it. The law is plain enough on that point. It says there should be cooperation between the states and federal government in enforcing prohibition. It has done wonderful things for many people, particularly the working men. They have good homes now and are not neglecting their families. Harvey S. Firestone, the great tire manufacturer, is my authority for saying prohibition has done untold good for the laborer."

Governor John H. Trumbull of Conn.

necticut, formally welcomed the governor at the opening session this morning. He extended to them the hospitality of the state, saying Connecticut is honored by your presence and proud of the opportunity to contribute to the spirit of good will and cooperation which these conferences never fail to inspire."

Even for "Fussy" Appetites

Of course, everyone who enjoys his breakfast likes Heinz Rice Flakes. But even those with "fussy" appetites like them, too! Which proves that they must be "extra special".

And they are. Imagine—fairy-like flakes of dainty crispness. Crunchy as toasted nut-meats—and better tasting. Golden-brown. Good!

Another thing. They're good for you! Not just because they're food—but because of a special health quality imparted by a new, patented, Heinz process of cereal-making. A process which transforms the natural roughage of the rice into a pure, edible cellulose giving Heinz Rice Flakes the properties of a gentle, natural laxative. Isn't that good? Oh, indeed it is—and they are!

Boom Mine Town Now Ghost City After Big Fire

Landmarks Are Wiped Out
By Disastrous Blaze In California Town

VOLUNTEERS SAVE CITY WITH DYNAMITE

(International News Service)
RANDESBURG, Calif., July 16.—With its landmarks wiped out by fire and its main business district in ruins, this once booming mining town today resembled the "ghost cities" which dot the last frontier of the old west.

While residents set to work rebuilding the devastated area, many of the historical landmarks to the days of the roaring nineties have been lost forever.

Twenty-two buildings, many of them landmarks from the time when Randesburg was a bustling, wide-open city with 8,000 inhabitants, instead of the 1,500 it now possesses, were burned to the ground by a fire which swept through the center of the town.

Few buildings left.

What buildings are left standing were saved by volunteers, fire-fighters, hastily organized, who resorted to dynamite to check the flames when hampered by the scarcity of water, always at a high premium in this desert town.

The desolation left by the blaze recalls in a way the fate of other boom towns of early California. Bullfrog and Rhyolite, deserted when the pay dirt played out.

The town of Randesburg was founded in 1895 by three prospectors, one of whom was the late John Singleton of Los Angeles, who amassed a fortune from the famous Yellow Aster Discovery mine. The town then was fully 50 miles from the nearest railroad station.

Flourished Until War.

There were saloons, gambling and dance halls and all of the attractions of frontier life along Butte street, its main thoroughfare.

The scene of many a shooting scrape and much rowdiness, Randesburg flourished until the advent of the world war made the mining of low grade ores unprofitable. Many of the famed mines have closed down. The Yellow Aster mine is said to have produced more gold ore than any other southern California mining property.

Randesburg, then, as now, had no local government. It was governed by the board of supervisors in Kern county, meeting at Bakersfield.

Sheriff Declares Program Of Backing Race Horses Will Not Be Allowed

(International News Service)
CLEVELAND, O., July 16.—Despite the ruling of a justice of the peace court that there is no Ohio statute forbidding the contribution system of backing race horses, Sheriff Ed Hanratty announced today that he would close Thistle-down race track, near here, again if its owner attempted to reopen it.

Racing at Thistle-down was suspended last week after Hanratty had arrested Ed Strong, one of the owners, and two of the latter's men employed in the "contribution" cages. They were charged with violating state laws against gambling.

Justice of the Peace Myron J. Penty dismissed charges against Strong and his associates, declaring that the contribution system was legal in Ohio. Although unable to appeal the decision, the sheriff said it would take an opinion from a higher court to stop him.

Strong conferred with his lawyers, after which he issued a statement to the effect that no attempt would be made today to reopen Thistle-down track. He refused to say whether it might be reopened later.

Scouts To Present
Indian Pageant On Wednesday Evening

Wednesday evening at 8:15 o'clock in the Indian village at Boy Scout camp John M. Phillips on the Slippery Rock creek, the European jamboree scouts will present their Indian pageant, in full costume and with the same setting as will be used when the pageant will be presented at the international scout jamboree at Birkenhead, England.

The story of the pageant concerns two tribes that have been continuously at war and who have finally agreed on terms of peace following the marriage of one chief's son to the other chief's daughter.

A war dance, a hunting song and the Indian marriage dance will be given by the boys. The entire story is pantomime. Earle K. Herbert, scoutmaster of the group, will repeat the story in English while the boys will give their parts in Indian sign language.

Mrs. Eleanor Shumaker of this city is the writer of the pageant and she has been assisted in the staging by Owen Penfield Fox and Paul Mackey, both students in Indian history and lore.

Arthur Smith of Ellwood is to be the soloist for the group. National Farm Outlook

By ARTHUR H. JENKINS,
Editor of the Farm Journal for Central Press.

If you have not bothered to read the text of the new farm bill—and if so I do not blame you in the least—I can tell you in a few sentences what it says.

The president appoints eight men all are familiar in one way or another with the marketing of farm products, particularly through co-operative selling organizations. These eight, with the secretary of agriculture make up a federal farm board of nine men.

There will be no tie votes in the board. The board is handed $500,000,000 of which $150,000,000 for its work and $1,500,000 for expenses has already been appropriated.

Then the president tells the board: "Here's your appointment and here's a billion dollars and more. If you know how to take care of this much, no go ahead and see what you can do to improve the marketing of the farmer's crops, so that the farmer will get more income without putting any noticeable load on the consumer. Do this as far as possible through co-operative selling organizations and methods. Don't waste the money, don't lend any without a reasonable prospect of getting it back; don't lend in spots where the result is sure to be a large increase in the surpluses of certain crops."

That is the farm bill, or "agricultural marketing act," to give it its right name, in a nutshell.

What is the board going to do? Nobody knows. When will it lend money? Nobody knows. Will it lend any money at all? Oh, yes, but not likely on very good security. Will the $500,000,000 be all spent and dissipated in a couple of years? Possibly not. Will co-operative selling organizations and the "stabilization corporations" they set up gain in size and importance? I think so. On the whole, what will be the result? Nobody knows.

We must remember that this new scheme is totally untried. No government has ever set up such a piece of machinery for the benefit of its farm population, and what will come of it is impossible for anybody to say.

What President Hoover wanted was a farm board equipped with a wad of money and turned loose to do whatever could be done for agriculture, within the limits of good sense and economic law.

That is almost precisely what Congress gave him, though they tied on a few more or less ornamental and useful frills.

Of course, it is the board itself, and the wisdom it displays, that will be the determining factor in its success or failure.

200 In Russian Mob
Lynch Police Guard

(International News Service)
MOSCOW, July 16.—A mob of 200 men and women armed with clubs and pieces of iron railroad track equipment, lynched a GPU railroad guard at the station Grivno, near Moscow, because the guard shot and killed a factory worker who was bumming a ride without a ticket.

The conductor put the worker off the suburban train at Grivno and asked the guard to put him in jail. Upon the worker's plea that he was employed in a factory at Podolsk and would pay for the ride out of his next week's wages, the guard telephoned to the factory to verify the arrested man's tale. While telephoning the worker ran off. The guard followed, fired six shots and killed the man.

The crowd which had been attracted by the argument pounced on the guard and beat him to death before other guards and local police could interfere.

Baby Blimp Goes Over New Castle About 2 O'Clock

At two o'clock today hundreds of New Castle citizens got a glimpse of the Baby blimp "Vigilant" as it flew over the city, enroute from Akron, O., to Ellwood City. The blimp flew quite low, and circled over the downtown section, then went on south eastwardly.

The small dirigible was making good speed and was easily manipulated over the city. Weather conditions were perfect.

Market Displays Upward Trend In Early Hours Today

New Advances In Steel Stocks,
Rails And Favored Specialties
Causes Active Buying

(International News Service)
NEW YORK, July 16.—New advances in steel stocks, rails and favored specialties stimulated active buying of speculative shares of all kinds on the big board during the first hour of the afternoon today. Though price gains were comparatively narrow, except in the high-priced specialties, the tendency of market values was distinctly upward.

United States Steel's 5 1/2-point jump to 265 1/4, a new high record, accompanied reliable reports of a special meeting of the directors of the corporation, to be held after the close of the market today. It was not known for what reason the meeting was called, but rumors of further split-ups of the stock melons have been circulating.

Railroad stocks were held back by profit-taking and speculative selling, but higher prices were recorded for Pennsylvania, Baltimore and Ohio, Katy, Kansas City Southern and Western Maryland. The favorite rails were not allied very closely with transportation mergers, but as a rule have included the dividend payers of long standing, with increasing earnings reported for the current year.

Warner Brothers, Paramount and other moving picture stocks pushed forward brilliantly on reports of increasing profits in their new talking films. Fleischmann was a favorite around 96, up 4 1/2 for the day.

The major stocks gave a better account of themselves, though prices of Chrysler, General Motors and other favorites have not rebounded more than a few points from the bottom, after having dropped all the way from 20 to 65 points from January high. Consolidated Gas and American and Foreign Power led the utilities and Pan American the oils into slightly higher price territory.

Physician At 30 Only Has Expectancy Of 38 Years More
Of Life, Records Show

(International News Service)
NEW YORK, July 17.—That the average doctor does not profit greatly by his superior knowledge of the human body and its functions was revealed in a recent study of a life table of American physicians. A physician, 30 years old, practically at the beginning of his career, has a life expectancy of only 38 years.

The average life expectancy of males in the general population at the age of thirty is just over 37 years while the policy-holders in the Ordinary Department of the Metropolitan Life Insurance company have a life expectancy two years greater than that of the average doctor.

The insurance company's statistical bulletin claimed that the cause for the close similarity of the life expectancy of a physician and the average male was due to the doctor's "exacting duties, irregular hours, and the inability to emergency calls at any and all times and in all weather," in spite of his superior knowledge of the human functions.

Fathers And Mothers Blamed By Governor For Crime Conditions

(International News Service)
GROTON, Conn., July 16.—Fathers and mothers, more than the "younger generation" were blamed for the conditions that lead to crime by Governor O. Max Gardner of North Carolina said in an address today before the 21st conference of governors at the Hotel Criswold.

"If fathers and mothers do not know how to behave, how is it possible to expect that their children shall behave better?" asked Governor Gardner. "If father and mother have lost all ethical conceptions, why should we expect that their children adhere to moral and ethical principles? If family relationships are to be increasingly dominated by nothing more than the desire for self-gratification and material gain, is it not reasonable to expect that honorable tradition will be involved?"

"When you come to think of it, what is there left for modern youth to reverence? Our central interpretation of life is dominated by a soulless materialism and in the everlasting whirl of things we have lost our sense of values. We are making it terribly difficult for our young men and young women to develop any real strength and depth of character. The disintegration or neglect of the religious ideal deprives youth of that element which, more than any other single factor, gives stability and certainty to its moral convictions."

Learn How to Save Lives

The Frone Pressure system of resuscitation is a simple little thing to learn. Each year approximately 130 lives are saved just because somebody knows how to apply the principles. The system is being taught in many schools and in most industrial plants. Yet a comparatively small percentage of our population knows just how to go about it. The above picture snapped by a National Safety Council photographer shows a group of vocational high school boys who specialize in electricity, being trained in the Frone Pressure system. Every boy in the class gets his chance on a time well spent and the knowledge may prove mighty valuable to those who learn this method of resuscitation. Ask your public utilities companies about it.

BOSTON, July 16. — Coming from India, where the natives look upon them as little lower than the gods, and are sacred to the monkey-god of Hanuman, whose temples are found all over that land, a pair of hanuman monkeys have been added to the ever increasing collection of animals at the Franklin Park Zoo here.

"Tom" and "Jerry" as they have been nicknamed, are clothed with silky whitish-gray hair and their small jet black faces are encircled by a distinctive white puff. Infants' Summer Food Problem Is Serious

"The care of summer foods is a matter that deserves intelligent attention upon the part of every one. Particularly, does this become exceedingly important where infants are concerned," said Dr. Theodore B. Appel, State Secretary of Health, today.

"For example, consider milk. Many people take the milk bottle too much for granted. And while the milk is in all probability perfectly safe to use and the bottle itself was properly sterilized before the milk was placed in it, one should not forget that the container must be handled after it leaves the plant. Moreover, it frequently remains on the doorstep or porch sufficiently long to pick up dust and dirt and be the resting place for flies.

"It follows that no matter how pure the milk, or how sterilized a bottle may be as it leaves the dairy, it should be promptly taken inside away from the heat, and the outside thoroughly cleansed before placing it in the ice-box.

"The same may be said concerning foods to be eaten in their raw state. One has but to visit the markets to realize the amount of unnecessary handling to which tomatoes, lettuce and other similar foods are subjected by all classes and conditions of people. Such articles are likely also to be the object of cough and sneeze sprays. Ordinary culinary hygiene suggests that such provender should be thoroughly cleaned before placing it in the icebox.

"It is equally necessary to avoid the use of spoiled foods. Extreme heat lessens the natural resistance, and sometimes the fact that fruit, meat or vegetables have been on the ice develops an unwarranted feeling of security as to freshness. Any food that is even slightly 'off' should promptly be discarded.

"Plenty of ice in the refrigerator.

In Stay In Italy

(International News Service) MARINA, PIZA, July 16.—Royal honors were paid Monday to Roger Q. Williams and Lewis A. Yancey, the daring American aviators who flew from Old Orchard, Me., to Rome with one forced stop at Santander, Spain.

The Americans flew in an Italian seaplane to Marina Piza where a royal motor car met them and conveyed them to the king's summer villa at San Rossore.

After their audience with the king the aviators were entertained at luncheon by the royal family. The king was much interested in the flight and asked the aviators to give him a firsthand, personal recounting of their experiences.

The two aviators had previously been received by Pope Pius and by Premier Mussolini. Their visit to Rome will end on Wednesday morning.

MILADY'S BEAUTY SHOPPE

Recommends this 2-minute olive-and-palm-oil complexion care

MRS. ETHEL PETERSON ALLEN OF NEW CASTLE

whose smart clientele consult her regularly regarding complexion care

Beauty culture has become an exacting profession today. The American woman relies on her beauty specialist not only for treatment but also for advice. And the average beauty specialist today has studied skin texture and the connection between health and beauty, between cleanliness and beauty.

The endorsement above, of one of the city's greatest experts, is in utter agreement with the advice on care of the complexion offered by Madame Jacobson of London, Institut de Beauté de Paris, and leading beauty experts of Berlin, Vienna, Geneva—twice-a-day cleansing with Palmolive Soap.

It is strikingly significant that the leading beauty authorities of Europe and America agree on one basic beauty rule, a rule for keeping complexions radiantly lovely. They call it "foundation cleansing."

Not only in this city but in every important beauty center of America and every capital of Europe, today, the leading authorities advise a simple home treatment to keep skin beautiful. It is a treatment involving the twice-a-day use of Palmolive Soap and water.

"Foundation cleansing"

"Foundation cleansing," as advised by the great experts, is simply the daily elimination of pore-clogging dirt and dust, of rouge and make-up. And this is done most effectively, they find, by the bland, creamy lather of Palmolive Soap.

This internationally-used complexion soap, bleached of oils of olive and palm, rids the skin of secretions—provides a basis upon which individual beauty treatments are found to be most successful.

In Paris, Mme. Cavalieri, after much study, adopted Palmolive for her clients' use as a home treatment. So, too, did Vincent and Massé—other long-established leaders. In Vienna, Pessl decided upon Palmolive.

In Berlin, Mme. Bock—in London, Bertha Jacobson.

Independently, the great experts of Europe have discovered for themselves the amazing effectiveness of this olive and palm oil complexion soap.

The Palmolive daily massage

Here is the treatment recommended by beauty authorities: massage a smooth lather of Palmolive Soap and warm water into the skin with both hands. Rub first with warm water, then with cold, until all impurities are washed away. That's all! Yet this simple treatment is an important reason for the increasing number of lovely complexions all over the world.

Consult your own beauty expert. Follow her advice and this very day begin "foundation cleansing" with Palmolive Soap. A clear, radiant complexion will be your reward.

Paul, of Vienna, represents a house famous for its beauty care during the past 100 years. He advises his Royal and aristocratic patrons to use Palmolive.

Moral Support For Soviet Russia Now American Prospect

By PIERCE MILLER
International News Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, July 16.—The strange anomaly of the American government lending moral support to Soviet Russia in the present Chinese crisis, appears among the possibilities Monday.

Traditional friendship of the United States for China, and its undisputed opposition to things Communistic, appears not to have influenced Chinese experts in the state department to give the Hoover administration advice favorable to the seizure of the Chinese Eastern Railroad.

Awful Developments

On the contrary, comment among these officials is that China will have difficulty in persuading the world,

Goshawk Bounty Is Not Available Until November

Five Dollar Bounty But Not Payable Until November 1

HARRISBURG, July 16.—If you would, shoot Goshawks to claim a bounty wait until November 1 is the advice of the State Game Commission.

The last Legislature authorized a bounty of $5 for each and every Goshawk killed and turned in, but the award will not become effective until November 1 and then will last only until next May 1.

Officials of the commission have been swamped with the birds since the first announcement was made. In many cases ordinary hawks are sent in and one person mistook an owl for the bird with a price on its head.

The Goshawk is a large, heavy-bodied hawk with comparatively short wings and long tail. In adult birds the top of the head is black.

The arena just back and above the eye is white, marked irregularly with black. The rest of the head is mixed black and white.

The underparts are heavily and finely barred with clear gray throughout and are somewhat streaked, particularly on the breast, eyes are red or red-brown, cere and feet yellowish-green.

Officials Scored In North Platte For Negro Banning

Attorney General Sorenson Of Nebraska Says "Act Of Expulsion Was Shameful"

(International News Service)
NORTH PLATTE, Neb., July 16.—Attorney General Sorenson stated Monday that it was a "shameful procedure" for North Platte officials to allow the expulsion of the entire negro population of 700 persons because one of their race killed a policeman and then committed suicide.

Sorenson said that if the negroes were not allowed to return he would remove the officers from their positions. Meantime a group of negroes called upon Governor Weaver to protest against the treatment of their race. Governor Weaver expressed sorrow at the incident and assured them ample protection would be given to returning negroes.

De Priest Angered
Chicago, July 16.—Congressman Oscar De Priest, only negro representative, expressed great indignation here Monday when informed that the entire negro population of North Platte, 225 men, women and children, had been forced to flee from the city after one of their race had shot a policeman and then committed suicide.

"Absolute injustice," said the negro congressman.

Kiwanians Hear Talk On Taxes

How Tax Question Is Being Solved In Pittsburgh, Explained By Attorney McNair

ELLWOOD CITY, July 15.—At the regular weekly dinner-meeting of the Kiwanis club in the dining room of the Trinity Lutheran church Monday evening, Attorney William A. McNair of Pittsburgh spoke and described the new method of taxation which is being tried out with apparent success in Pittsburgh.

The idea is that the city has cut the price of taxes on buildings, and raised the price on un-occupied land, making it very expensive for a man to buy a piece of property and keep it, permitting words, etc., to accumulate, waiting until his neighbors have built nice homes, raising the value of the surrounding properties, then sell his plot at a profit.

The new plan stimulates building of all kinds, which in turn increases population, and also increases the value of property. Pittsburgh is the only city in the country so far to try this method, stated Mr. McNair, but New York is considering it, and third class cities of Pennsylvania have gone on record as favoring it.

How To Lose Ten Dozen Pounds of Fat

At the Same Time Gain in Physical Vigor and Youthfulness and Swiftly Possess a Clear Skin and Vivacious Eyes That Sparkle With Glorious Health.

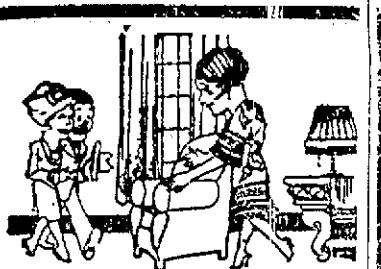

Here's the recipe that banishes fat and brings into blossom all the natural attractiveness that every woman possesses.

Every morning take one-half teaspoonful of Kruschen Salts in a glass of hot water before breakfast.

Be sure and do this every morning for "the little daily dose that takes off the fat." Don't miss a morning. The Kruschen habit means that every particle of poisonous waste matter and harmful acids and gases are expelled from the system.

At the same time the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels are tuned up and the pure fresh blood containing Nature's six life-giving salts are carried to every organ, gland, nerve and fiber of the body and this is followed by "that Kruschen feeling" of energetic health and activity that is reflected in bright eyes, clear skin, cheerful, lively and convincing figure.

If you want to lose fat with speed get an 8c bottle of Kruschen Salts from a Retailer of New Castle, Inc. or any live druggist anywhere in America with the distinct understanding that you must be satisfied with results or money back.

The remarkable Welsbach Electric REFRIGERATOR operates under less pressure than the water system in your home...

With so little pressure necessary—only twenty pounds—to operate the Welsbach Low-Pressure Refrigeration system, the natural result is a velvet-smooth operation functioning even in the hottest weather quietly and without vibration.

With temperatures above ninety degrees this quiet, effortless action develops its greatest margin of superiority. Compare it then with average refrigeration systems which require 60, 80 and even 100 pounds pressure before the refrigerator can be kept chilled!

Welsbach has, in fact, revolutionized refrigeration just as years ago it revolutionized lighting.

Beautifully finished cabinets constructed of one-piece steel are made complete in the Welsbach plant. They are available in all necessary sizes, on terms which make ownership easy.

A Welsbach is least expensive to own and operate. The Welsbach Low-Pressure Refrigeration is also made for the apartment and store.

HIGH LIGHTS OF HISTORY

By J. Carroll Mansfield

The Story Of The World War
62—The Sale Of Munitions

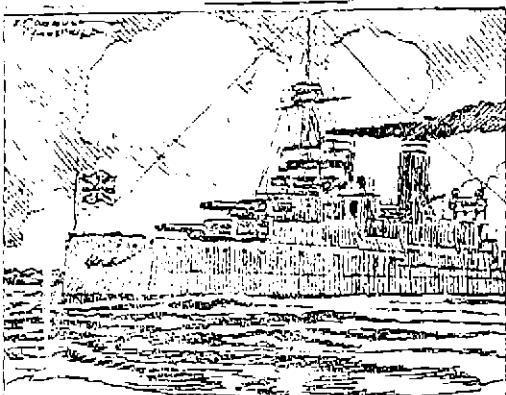

THE BEGINNING OF THE WORLD WAR IN 1914 FOUND GERMANY PREPARED WITH VAST SUPPLIES OF ARMS AND AMMUNITION ON WHICH SHE HAD BEEN STORING UP FOR SUCH AN EMERGENCY. ON THE OTHER HAND THE ALLIES ENTERED THE STRUGGLE WITH A LIMITED AMOUNT OF WAR MATERIAL.

AS SOON AS IT BECAME APPARENT THAT THE WAR WOULD LAST A LONG TIME, THE ALLIES TURNED TO THE UNITED STATES TO BUY MUNITIONS. BEFORE LONG MANY GREAT PLANTS FOR MANUFACTURING ARMS AND AMMUNITION HAD SPRUNG UP IN AMERICA, AND THE COUNTRY EXPERIENCED A WIDESPREAD INDUSTRIAL BOOM.

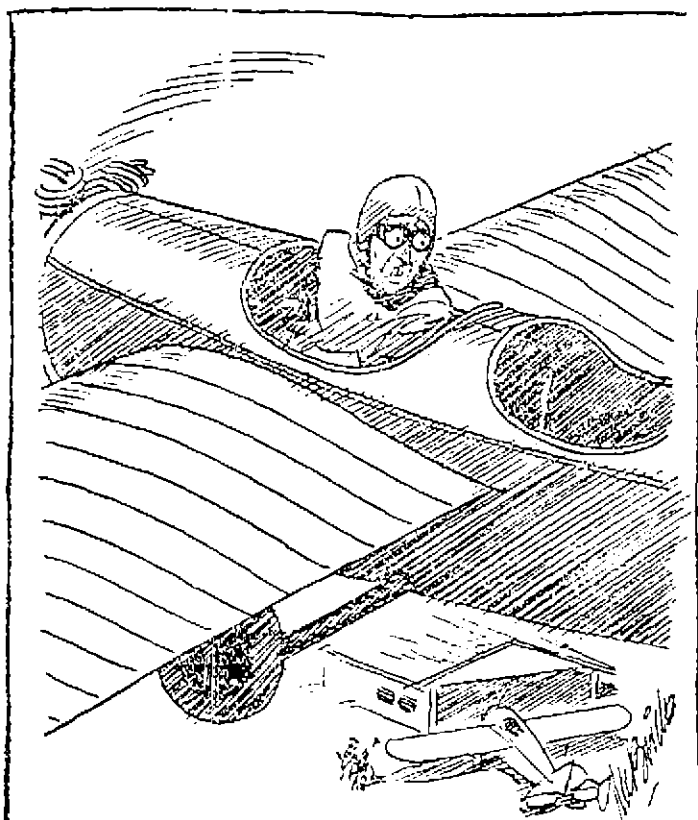

GERMANY, HEMMED IN BY HER ENEMIES (SEE MAP), DEMANDED THAT THE UNITED STATES STOP THE SALE OF MUNITIONS TO THE ALLIES. HOWEVER, AMERICA, AS A NEUTRAL, HAD THE RIGHT BY INTERNATIONAL LAW TO SELL TO ALL NATIONS AND, IN FACT, WOULD HAVE VIOLATED HER NEUTRALITY HAD SHE YIELDED TO GERMANY'S DEMANDS.

GERMANY, TOO, COULD HAVE BOUGHT WAR MATERIAL IN THE UNITED STATES IF HER SHIPS HAD BEEN ABLE TO REACH AMERICA. BUT THE POWERFUL FLEETS OF THE ALLIES GUARDED ALL THE SEA LANES, AND THE ONLY GERMAN VESSELS THAT COULD PASS THE BLOCKADE WERE SUBMARINES.

Davies-Gold Bout Exciting And Fast

Judges Disagree And Referee's Verdict Gives Bout To Davies

SCARNEY AND PICKARD REGISTER KNOCKOUTS

By ED FRITZ
Fighting fans who trotted into Bill Jolly's Palace of Punch last night had their full apportionment of excitement today when the fight was shown on the radio. The fight was a real one, and the judges' decision was given to Davies.

The bout was unusually fast and there were many fans who believed the decision should have been a draw. Davies forced the fight, proved the smartest and Gold countered effectively and hit harder.

A tabulation of the rounds by The News shows that Willie had an edge but the fight was so close that many fans asked that the battle be retried which goes to show that it was decided close.

Action Plus Furnished
There were no knockdowns but there were times when each boxer landed blows that turned each other around in semi-circles and in the ninth Willie was driven into the ropes with a right.

He came back with a barrage of punches and in the tenth when they were fighting like wildcats he hit Willie Gold with a left cross to the jaw.

It was a fight in which there was action each session. Had Gold been a little more aggressive it is probable the judges might have agreed on a draw but in things such as these opinion differs.

Scarney Lands K. O.
The judges were Big Jim Dunn of New Castle and Jim Fox of Alliquippa. The referee was George Chip and Timekeeper Pete Capicola. Mike Kane represented the commission and Bill Jolly promoted the show.

The semi-final showed that Harold Scarney, 180, Niles, O., who played football with South High, is coming on fast again. He won because he was good and not because Rus Haymaker, 175, was bad.

Haymaker stood up in his corner but had scarcely left his chair until Scarney was on him. Haymaker made the error of trying to seize a rope and elude Scarney.

How Kayo Came
When he seized the rope the act threw his body sideways leaving his jaw exposed as his left hand dangled along his side. Scarney lifted a left hook to the jaw.

Harold kept on top of Haymaker who tried to work himself from the ropes instead of clinching. Scarney let fly with both hands to the head then ripped a left hook to the stomach.

The big Canadian sank to the floor. The punch, landed to the pit of the stomach, caused agony and the Canadian could not get up. The punch had paralyzed his nerve center.

Scarney is the chap who outboxed Emmett Recco up to the time Emmett landed a wild right to his jaw at Youngstown. The fans will see more of Mr. Scarney.

Pickard Stops Martin
The big upset occurred in the sixth round when Walter Pickard, of Youngstown and Niles, O., landed a light-heavyweight. Pickard kayoed Martin in the fourth round. Pickard dropped Martin in the second for a count of six and Martin dropped Pickard for nine in the third. In the fourth Pickard felled Martin for a nine, then knocked him out.

Pete Mazeo, Cleveland, 1928 U. S. Olympic flyweight champion stepped out at 123½ against Paul Balint, Pittsburgh, 125½, and gave the protege of Patsy Drannigan a nice lining in six rounds.

Minter Gets "Duke"
Tony Leone, injured Sunday night did not appear to box young Sapienza, bantamweight of Zelensople and Scarney took three rounds off during the afternoon and went in against Sapienza.

Cent. Presbyterians Upset Wesley M. E.

Kirkers Home Run In Sixth Inning Gives Presbyterians Edge, 6 To 5

The home run drive by Kirkers with two men on in the sixth frame was sufficient for the Presbyterians to subdue the Wesley M. E. team in a New Castle Church League game played at Scotland Lane field on Monday night.

The game was a pitchers' battle between Sargeant and Reck with both going to the former. Kirkers' current clinic broke up the game. The Wesley team took the lead in the first frame by jumping on Kirkers for four runs, but their lead was reduced somewhat in the third when the Presbyterians hammered out two runs.

The game was very well played. Each team had one error chalked up. Herkins and Carr had two hits apiece to be the leading sluggers of the battle.

Several Cities Are After Big Fight
(International News Service)
BOSTON July 16—A four-cornered scramble was on today between Chicago, Detroit, New York and Boston for the Max Schmeling-Jack Sharkey heavyweight elimination bout.

"Sharkey wants to fight in Chicago and Schmeling is not adverse to it," said William F. Carey of the Madison Square Garden Corporation, who came here the meeting of the directors of the Boston Garden.

A million dollar gate that would take care of Sharkey's $100,000 guarantee was assured both in Detroit and Chicago, Carey indicated.

Strange As It May Seem
By Central Press
The Chicago White Sox committed 12 errors in a game May 6, 1903. Their opponents, Detroit Tigers, made six bobbles. That's 18 or one for each player. But that's nothing. Andy Leonard of Boston Nationals made eight errors in one game in 1876.

A million dollar gate that would take care of Sharkey's $100,000 guarantee was assured both in Detroit and Chicago, Carey indicated.

Black Sox Trims White Sox 17-16

Black Sox baseball team of the South Side defeated the White Sox nine 17-16 in a fast and interesting game played on the Can Works grounds.

The game was featured by home runs by Ciccone, Marino, Pacelli, and Cicci. Ciccone proved the outstanding hitter of the game with two home runs. Pacelli was the star hurler for the winners. Pacelli replaced Fazio and held his opponents in check while his team pined up a one run lead to capture the game.

Following is a summary of the game:

CHICAGO, July 16.—Sammy Mandell of Rockford, Ill., today began training at the newly established camp at Washington Park race track for his bout in defense of his lightweight title against Tony Canzoneri here August 2.

Grande-Carpentero Battle Next Week

By ED FRITZ
Fans will see a unique fistie setto next Monday night at the Jolly bowl and probably for the first time in the eastern history of pugilism, two Filipino flyweights will clash. They are Frisco Grande and Luis Carpentero. It was a difficult task to make the match as the managers of each boxer understands that the Filipinos will "fight to a finish. Sammy Lupica and Sammy Harris will box the semi-final. These matches should be sensational and fans who want "closeups" should get busy and not wait until next Monday.

At Connecticut Lake Park Wednesday evening, 8:15 p. m. Standard time, Frankie Rio and U. S. Carpenter will fight again. The last fight occurred in Coshocoon, O. and Rio had Carpenter down in the second and won the battle. Jack DeNeri will take on Freddie Helstein, Buffalo, in the semi-final. Three other bouts will be staged.

Willie Davies will step out at Beaver Falls July 25 with Genaro Pino of Duke Barry's stable. Duke is of Davenport, Ia. and is editor of the Blue Book.

Tony Fuente the Mexican heavyweight and Billy Jones, great light-heavyweight of Philadelphia will meet at Erie. It is proposed to bring Fuente or Jones to the Jolly bowl this summer.

Three Games In County Circuit

Three good games are on schedule tonight in the Lawrence county baseball league. The games will start at 6:15 o'clock D. S. T.
The Wampum team goes to the E. & A. field to tangle with the league leading Pennsy outfit. Wampum may prove troublesome. McCann and Nole will officiate.
The Italians go to the Clifton Flats field to meet the clever Slovak team. Dunn and Costella will handle the game. The Italians are making a big play for the first half title.
Hillsville will travel to Bessemer for a league game. Ciazza and Hudson have been assigned to "call them".

Farr And Martin Fight To Draw

(International News Service)
BRADDOCK, Pa. July 16.—The last boxing of Andy Martin, Boston, met his match here last night in the pounding attack of Johnny Farr, Cleveland lightweight, but not more than a match. Referee Al Grayber called it a draw after the judges had split their votes between the two fighters. Farr had Martin groggy several times, but lacked the steam to finish him.

George Davick, Johnstown, surprised fans by taking every one of eight rounds from the negro favorite, Harry Williams, of Pittsburgh.

Ken Hargraves, McKeesport negro, had a lot on Herman Polins of Ambridge, who was simply over-matched. Hargraves scored two knockdowns in the second stanza, but failed to follow through for the kayo.

Referee Ed Kennedy decided Eddie Guga of Clairton had been knocked out on his feet in the fifth after Frankie Moran of Homewood had him with everything but the canvas floor of the arena.

CASCADE A. C. TO PLAY PRACTICE GAME

Cascade A. C. players will meet Tuesday evening at the grounds of the team for a practice game. The team has two games scheduled for the week and the manager desires to get the team in shape for these contests.

Only By Miracle Can Giants Capture Title

John J. McGraw, Is Having His Troubles With Giant Clan, Running In Poor Third

Pirates And Cubs Should Stage Thrilling Race Down Stretch Next Few Weeks

By DAVIS J. WALSH
NEW YORK, July 16.—Maybe the Pittsburgh Pirates still think the Chicago Cubs aren't willing to declare the local outfit out of the pennant fight yet. And maybe neither of them will find this necessary. The Giants may have declared themselves out of it already. Anyhow there is a more than a tentative suspicion around these parts that the Giants have curled up on John McGraw like an old love letter.

Apparently the Pirates rush through the East—they won their eighth straight in Boston yesterday—and the consistent winning of the Cubs in this section have taken all the fight out of John's ball club. In spite of a long stay at home, they are 6½ games out of the lead today and this depressing circumstance has had its effect in the dugout. Here, brooding silence pervades. The boys have nothing to say and they spend the afternoon saying it. Hogan cashed a foul in amongst them the other day and nobody moved. They probably were thinking about something important. Anyhow, they hadn't seen him coming. The incident was typical of an attitude the Giants seem to have assumed since last Wednesday when they failed to win the opening game of a double header with the Cubs.

McGraw Slave Driver
This sounds like a strange outfit for a broke like McGraw to be handling. John is supposed to be a slave driver whose every word is the last of a whip that makes the hired men orange and cover but apparently they are not cringing in good form these days. Even a man's most violent outburst is liable to seem pointless if he gets the impression that nobody is listening.

Probably the main trouble with the club is that it finds itself in third place and has come to suspect that this is where it belongs. Certainly indications are strongly against an improvement in their situation. For one thing, they have lost ten games more than have the Pirates and there is one bet you always can make with an open mind and a clear conscience, namely, games that are lost, stay lost. A club can get well out in front if victories and you still have a chance. But when it tops you badly in defeats you are licked.

Another adverse indication is the fact that the Giants have played several double headers in the last three weeks and have broken even in six of them. It is remarkable how fast one can get oneself nowhere doing business like that. Meaning, the club they expected to run down while the Eastern campaign was on, to wit, the Pirates has won three straight in Brooklyn four straight in Philadelphia and the opening game in Boston yesterday. They have won thirteen of the last fifteen games while the Giants have been doddering along with eight victories and five defeats. They also have lost ground to the Cubs, so that if they feel downcast today they have come by the sentiment honestly.

Mahoning Team Tops Baptists

Errors Play Prominent Part In Game Played At Seventh Ward Field

The Mahoning M. E. team secured an early lead and led the entire way against the First Baptists in a New Castle church league game, played at the seventh ward field on Monday night. The score was 10 to 3.

The Baptists rallied in the seventh and secured three runs before the side was retired, but they fell short two runs of enough to subdue the fighting and clever Mahoning aggregation.

Errors, eight of them, marred the game somewhat. The Baptists had three misplays and the seventh warders kicked in with five. Smith and Cubbison were the opposing pitchers. Cubbison clubbed out a triple, and Fox, Cubbison and Spencer had doubles.

Pirates Win In Tenth Inning

Comorosky's Bingle And Error By Sisler Gives Bucs Victory In Tenth Frame

BRVES FIELD, BOSTON, July 16.—The hustling Pittsburgh Pirates took 10 innings yesterday afternoon in subduing the lowly Braves. The count was 5 to 4. Three Boston misplays gave the Smoky City crew the "break" of the contest. Adam Comorosky, the eastern Pennsylvania Pole, was the big factor in the Bucco victory.

Heinie Meins and Eddie Brandt, both went the route for their respective teams and both pitched good baseball. Brandt was found for seven hits by the Bushmen. Meins yielded 11 safe wallpops.

Dickie Bartell had the only Pirate fizzle, a miscue that caused the game to go to extra innings.

By winning yesterday the Pittsburgh boys extended their winning streak to eight straight.

Pitching Marathoners

By QUIN HALL
The longest baseball game ever played since the big leagues were established, was called on account of darkness at the end of the twenty-sixth inning. The final count was 1 to 1, and it was played on May 1, 1920, between Brooklyn and Boston. Leon Cadore was on the mound for the Robins and Joe Oeschger did the flinging for the Braves. They both stuck to their tasks for the entire twenty-six rounds. The game lasted three hours and fifty minutes. Oeschger allowed the Robins only nine safe hits, while Cadore yielded fifteen.

Both pitchers suffered from the strain of going the Marathon distance, and while both of them remained in the big leagues for several years afterward, the books prove that they were never as effective after their long afternoon as they were before. Cadore and Oeschger both admitted afterward that during the late innings their pitching arms kept feeling heavier and that the ball was like an iron weight.

In a game played at Chicago last May, the White Sox and Detroit Tigers battled through twenty-one innings, the longest game played in the majors since May 17, 1927, when

Ruth Picks Up In Homer Race

"Chuck" Klein, Philly Player Looks Like Only Man Able To Dethrone Ruth

By LES CONKLIN
International News Service Staff Correspondent
NEW YORK, July 16.—The boys who were all for dethroning Babe Ruth as home run king last month are eating considerable crow today, for present indications are that the master mauler again will be leading the circuit clouters of both leagues when the final totals are posted.

After being laid up and forced to swallow nasty medicine for the first three weeks of June, Ruth today has only two homers less than Buster Gehrig, the American League leader. He has delivered ten four baggers in the last four weeks and probably would be leading the parade by a comfortable margin today if growing pains had not forced him to take a sista.

The babe's clouts have been particularly valuable to the Yankees because of their timeliness. His No. 20, contributed in the ninth inning of the game with Detroit yesterday, gave the champions a dramatic 7 to 5 victory.

New York cut the Athletics' lead to eight games, as the Maeks lost the first game of a double bill to Cleveland, 8 to 5, with the rookie Wes Ferrell opposing them. George Earnshaw scalped the Indians in the nightcap, 4 to 0.

Klein "Socks Them."
If Ruth does lose his home run diadem his successor may be Chuck Klein, the Philly phenom, who smacked his 24th, 25th and 26th homers yesterday and became one up on Mel Ott of the Giants in the National League home run derby. Despite Klein's homeric feats, the Phils dropped both ends of a double-header to the Cubs, 9 to 6 and 7 to 6.

Braddock Ready For Big Battle

James J. Braddock, Lightweight Contender Looks Very Fit For Fight

By SID MERCER
International News Service Staff Correspondent
SARATOGA SPRINGS, N. Y., July 16.—James J. Braddock is fit and ready, but Tommy Loughran is still struggling with his weight problem as challenger and champion wind up training for their light-heavyweight tilt, Thursday night at Yankee Stadium, New York.

Braddock, far enough under the weight to justify a period of restful inactivity for the next two days, tossed his 14-ounce sparring gloves aside last night and will not pull on leather again until Thursday night.

Braddock Looks Good
If even a challenger looked the part of a man of destiny, Braddock is that picture today. His strong, lithe body with its symmetrical lines, does not betray the crushing power in his fists, but when he goes into action he explodes, shattering punches as his gray eyes narrow with grim determination.

Braddock is just as sure that he is going to knock out Loughran and perhaps accomplish that feat with one blow, as he is of collecting his end of the purse.

Meanwhile Loughran is grinding away wearily at Hoesick Falls, harassed by the necessity of whitening down and keeping off weight right up to the moment that he greets Braddock at the scales. The champion can't help betraying the anxiety he feels over how this heroic reduction process will affect his speed and stamina.

The challenger weighed only 171 1-2 after losing about 20 ounces in his last program workout yesterday. At that poundage he was strong and fit and hammered away at four sparring partners without wheezing.

Mushball League

The New Castle News team of mushball players will tangle with the Shenango Tin Mill clouters, tonight, at 6:30 o'clock, at the Colonial field. The Printers are out for revenge to night. The Tin Millers have downed the Printers on two occasions.

Tomorrow night, two games are on tap. The Phalanx team goes to the Lehigh field, to battle the Cementers.

The Shenango Tin team engages the hustling Firemen at Colonial field. Thursday the Lehigh and Postoffice teams will struggle at Colonial. Friday the News team meets the Phalanx.

Paroles Check-Up In State Planned

Pardon Board Will Probe Liberty From Penal Institutions In State

To Decide Time Of Absence Of Prisoners, Employment And Responsibility

HARRISBURG, July 16.—The supervision of paroled prisoners of state penal and correctional institutions will be taken over by the state board of parols next fall, Attorney General Cyrus E. Woods announced today.

This authority was invested in the board by an act adopted by the 1929 legislature. It does not affect prisoners released under parole from county prisons.

The legislation was prepared by the Pennsylvania crime commission as a means of affording greater facility in guiding the conduct of prisoners whose sentences have been thus commuted. Charles Edwin Fox, former district attorney of Philadelphia, gave much thought to the problem, and Attorney General Woods said he wished to confer with Fox when he returns from his vacation before establishing the board's procedure.

By the terms of the law, the attorney general may appoint a supervisor of parols and field men to serve as agents of the pardon board in areas into which the state will be divided for proper supervision.

Standards to govern the parols will be prepared by the board. Forms will be issued to the wardens of the Eastern and Western penitentiaries and the Pennsylvania Industrial Reformatory upon which will be recorded a detailed statement concerning every prisoner let out.

The time prisoners shall be continued on parole, the kind and character of employment and the responsibility of each employer shall be determined by the board. The board will also designate the person into whose custody the prisoner shall be released.

The law requires the board to invite a representative of each penitentiary and the reformatory to sit with it when considering matters relating to parols.

The reformatory at Huntingdon retains its power to parole its inmates at its own discretion.

Two companion laws adopted give the board of pardons authority to cause warrants to be issued for the arrest of prisoners accused of violating their parols. Upon arrest, the parolee shall be returned to the penitentiary or reformatory from which he was released and shall receive a hearing before its board of trustees, which will consider the report presented by the board of pardons. If found guilty, he will be again freed upon the conditions set forth in his original release.

Attorney General Woods said that no definite plans had been worked out, and no person selected for the office of supervisor of parols. He said that he hoped, after conferring with Mr. Fox, to place the new scheme into operation in the early fall.

A "flag drill" was given by the younger members. Special music was furnished by the Misses Myra and Clara Houk with Margaret Long at the piano.

ITCHING ENDS WHEN ZEMO TOUCHES SKIN

It's wonderful the way something, cooling Zemo brings relief to itching skin, sunburn, windburn and clears up bites, pimples and rash. Even in severe cases, itching disappears almost as soon as Zemo touches the skin. To draw out local infection and clear away unsightly blemishes there's nothing better than invisible Zemo. Always keep this family antiseptic on hand. Use it freely. It's safe as can be seen, 60c and $1.00.

THE ONLY ALL-STEEL REFRIGERATOR
rugged, warp-proof, durable

The General Electric—the first and only refrigerator built entirely of steel. It is as strong as a safe. It cannot warp. Its doors and sills, faced with warp-proof Textolite, cannot sag. It keeps cold in and heat out more effectively than any cabinet that has ever been sold.

And the mechanism of the General Electric—how far ahead of the field that is! All enclosed in an hermetically sealed steel casing—unusually quiet, self-oiling, dust-proof—with an easily accessible temperature control. It is mounted on top, out of the way... leaving the greatest room inside the cabinet for food storage.

As evidence of guaranteed reliability—there are now more than 300,000 users and not one has ever spent a single dollar for repairs.

See all the models and ask about our plan of conveniently spaced time payments.

Movie Directors Say Lovely Skin Wins

HOLLYWOOD, Calif.—"Beautiful skin is absolutely necessary for a girl's popularity and loveliness," says Howard Higgins, Pathe director, and agrees with leading movie directors. "I don't remember a girl's ever reaching screen stardom without a rarely lovely skin."

Lina Basquette, Pathe star, knows that there is no charm without lovely skin. She is one of the 442 important Hollywood actresses who keep their skin exquisite with Lux Toilet Soap.

"This white, fragrant soap has all the charm of an imported French soap," she says. "And it leaves my skin so beautifully smooth!"

Nine out of ten screen stars use this soap, and all the great film studios have made it the official soap for their dressing rooms.

State Tobacco Crop Yield Will Be Exceptional

(International News Service)

LANCASTER, Pa., July 16.—Farmers in this section, with whom tobacco is a staple item of planting, anticipated a remarkable quality yield and good market prices for the 1929 tobacco crop.

The Lancaster County Tobacco Growers Association has decided to enter a booth at the county fair next month when prizes totalling close to $200 will be awarded in four divisions roughly corresponding to four districts of the county.

Government reports on stocks of leaf tobacco held by manufacturers and dealers show that approximately the same amount as on April 1, 1928 is on hand but that stocks are roughly 30,000,000 pounds lower than on April 1, 1927.

The number of cigars manufactured during April 1, however shows an increase of 63,000,000 Class A cigars, retelling for not more than five cents each. Lancaster county tobacco is used in the manufacture of these cigars, and the increase was pointed to as one of the most favorable prospects for the local industry.
